To whom it may concern:

I am writing this letter to highly recommend Mr. Benoit Cassagnau for French language lessons and translation-related assignments. I have had the pleasure of working closely with him between 2007 and 2010 and I was impressed by his outstanding language skills, attention to detail, and professionalism.

Mr. Cassagnau demonstrated remarkable versatility in handling various types of personal and business related translation assignments demonstrating deep understanding of linguistic nuances, cultural contexts, and idiomatic expressions.

He showed proficiency in translating from Spanish to French documents such as business letters, presentations and emails as well as personal correspondence. His ability to adapt to different writing styles, business and academic-specific terminology, and specific business and personal requirements makes him a reliable choice for language lessons and any translation project and which I personally and professionally recommend.
