To whom it may concern,

It is my pleasure to write a recommendation letter for Benoit Cassagnau.

I have been a student working with Benoit Cassagnau for the past four years; he has been a private tutor giving me French lessons. Although I had prior knowledge in French, I progressed greatly in my language acquisition and was able to successfully present the B1, B2 and C1 exams with outstanding results, and will hopefully present the C2 exam soon in order to obtain mastery.

Benoit's lessons are a combination of all the key aspects of learning a language, ranging from grammar, oral tests and captivating videos, each session specifically tailored to my needs and interests whilst still being able to maintain the appropriate balance required for mastery of the language. No matter what I would learn, Benoit managed to make every aspect enjoyable and didactic, testing me in a variety of ways to stimulate my learning.

From all the time he worked with me, I can assure that he is a hard-working individual with interest and dedication to seeing his students succeed, providing them with all the tools necessary to reach their goals. Even faced with challenges, he maintains a determined attitude and effective communication, making sure any student will grasp even the most complex ideas, or simplest subjects.

I would strongly recommend Benoit to any teaching position.

Cordially,
Valeria Celi.
