

February 10, 2026

To Whom It May Concern,

I am happy to recommend Benoit Cassa, my children's French teacher. He is highly competent, patient, and very engaging with young students. Even though the classes are online, he has achieved excellent results and keeps my children motivated and progressing consistently.

Benoit is always attentive to their individual needs and is open and available for communication with parents. I highly recommend him as an outstanding French teacher.

Sincerely,

Thais Leme